Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better.

Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it. The bill does not require that the road building shall be of a permanent character. The convention demanded that both these features be corrected, so as to require benefited communities to furnish at least of improving on the farm he recently one third of the money spent on road, and also to make the road work of a permanent character. In case of dirt roads "permanent" was construed to require proper culverts. Federal supervision of work and expenditures

The resolution on this subject provoked the only spirited contest of the session. Arguments ranged from a demand for a much larger appropriation to a protest against any federal aid, One suggestion was that a hope of much road work in Missouri under the special assessment road district plan. Another argument was that through the issue of long term bonds by the various counties. Some contended that any expression on the ending measure would be construed as injecting politics into a nonpartisan commercial body. The final form of the resolution was a compromise of the views of the advocates of federal

Notwithstanding the large vote in the House, the bill's passage by the fore the end came. Senate and approval by the president are not assured. The uncertainty of the condition of the treasury under have much to do with the chances of the bill, probably as much as the di versity of opinion as to the wisdom of sult in many more large appropriations. The Federation of Commercial Clubs suggested two wise amendments, should the Senate and the president decide to embark on such a tremendous undertaking at the present tim. Mr. Shackleford by bringing the question of public highways to the attention of the country in such striking fashion has deserved the commenda-Clubs of his own state, though the suggestion of such vital amendments may not be flattering to his pride as a constructive legislator. -St. Louis Globe Democrat.
